

ALL OUR PRICES ARE QUOTED IN BRITISH POUNDS STERLING.

The Circle of Raphael - Guardians of the Light and Practitioners of the Ancient Wisdoms

US & World-wide customers paying for their order with either a US dollar based credit card or with a credit card based on others currencies.

By law when you order online we do not get to see any of your credit card details. All orders made on our secure server go straight to our bank and they make the security checks to insure that you are the genuine card owner and then charge your credit card in British pounds. Your own credit card company then convert this into US dollars and debit it from your credit card account in US dollars if you reside in the USA, or into your local currency if you reside else where. This is similar using your credit card in another country while on vacation.

All our prices are quoted in British Pounds Sterling.

All our talismans are created and empowered in Great Britain by one of the worlds most experienced & dedicated western mystics. Clients residing outside Britain will be charged in their local currency by their own credit card company at the official exchange rate on the day. There are currency converters on Google if you wish to check the exchange rate of your local currency before you place an order online.

How Long Before I Receive My Order?

British customers can usually expect to receive their order within 5 to 8 working days. Customers in the USA and the rest of the world should allow 14 to 21 working days for their order to clear the new heightened security at customs. However all customers should allow 28 working days before contacting us regarding their order. You can normally expect to receive your complete order within 14 working days or less, however please allow up to 28 working days.
